Racial Equity Learning Opportunities for Washington County Employees

Opportunities	Brief Description	Link
Training
Race Forward	Unlike “diversity trainings” which primarily focus on interpersonal relations and understanding, the Building Racial Equity trainings emphasize how to challenge and change institutional racial inequities. (please consult your manager to determine how to pay for these trainings)	https://www.raceforward.org/trainings
The Color of Law	The Color of Law: The Role of Government in Shaping Racial Inequity examines the local, state and federal policies that supported racially discriminatory practices and cultivated racially segregated housing.	https://www.learningforjustice.org/classroom-resources/lessons/the-color-of-law-creating-racially-segregated-communities
Equal Employment Opportunity law training	Workshops provide the latest updates on EEO laws and tips on preventing discrimination in the workplace.  Who Should Attend? Human resource professionals, EEO staff, attorneys, supervisors, managers, state and local government officials, federal agency EEO personnel, staffing agencies and union officials. (please consult your manager to determine how to pay for these trainings)	https://eeotraining.eeoc.gov/profile/web/index.cfm?D=0x2547d970&amp;varPage=info
Video Links
The Unequal Opportunity Race	Short film for the African American Policy Forum, showing metaphors for obstacles to equality which affirmative action tries to alleviate.	The Unequal Opportunity Race - YouTube
The Truth Behind ‘We the People’	The son of an American woman of Dutch heritage and a Navajo man, Mark Charles offers a unique perspective on three of the most misinterpreted words in American History. Written in the Papal Bulls of the 15th Century, embedded in our founding documents in the 18th Century, codified as legal precedent in the 19th Century and referenced by the Supreme Court in the 20th and 21st Centuries, the Doctrine of Discovery has been used throughout the history of the United States to keep "We the People" from including all the people.	Mark Charles: The truth behind 'We the People' most misunderstood words in US history   TED

The Danger of a Single Story	Our lives, our cultures, are composed of many overlapping stories. Novelist Chimamanda Adichie tells the story of how she found her authentic cultural voice -- and warns that if we hear only a single story about another person or country, we risk a critical misunderstanding.	https://www.ted.com/talks/chimamanda_ngozi_danger_of_a_single_story
Targeted Universalism	The challenge of othering and belonging is the challenge of our time. Putting these ambitious changes on the agenda for equity advocates cannot be more critical. Targeted Universalism is a much-needed framework for putting belonging into practice—for grounding the idea of what structural belonging and inclusion can look like in its most robust and radical sense.	https://belonging.berkeley.edu/targeted-univers
	Dr. John A. Powell discusses why universal and targeted strategies do not work, as well as how targeted universalism requires a deeper understanding of our situatedness within structures and moves us beyond methodological individualism.	https://belonging.berkeley.edu/video-leading-to-equity-targeted-universalism-john-powell

Who Belongs	Who Belongs? demonstrates a commitment to public dialogue. The question of who belongs in our societies, whether local, national, or global, is one of the central drivers that underpin how people are othered, or how the conditions of belonging are created.	https://belonging.berkeley.edu/whobelongs

Books
My Grandmother's Hands – Resmaa Menakem	Sensitive and probing, this book from therapist Menakem delves into the complex effects of racism and white privilege. Departing from standard academic approaches, he speaks from the wisdom of his grandmother and his own expertise in somatic therapy, a field that emphasizes the mind-body connection. Trauma, both present-day and historical, forms the cornerstone of Menakem's analysis.	My Grandmother's Hands: Racialized Trauma &amp; Pathway to Mending Our Hearts and Bodies: Menakem, Resmaa: 9781942094470: Amazon.com: Books
The Sum of Us What Racism Costs Everyone and How We Can Prosper Together By Heather McGhee	An analysis of how we arrived here: divided and self-destructing, materially rich but spiritually starved and vastly unequal. McGhee marshals economic and sociological research to paint an irrefutable story of racism's costs, but at the heart of the book are the humble stories of people yearning to be part of a better America, including white supremacy's collateral victims: white people themselves.	https://www.penguinrandomhouse.com/books/sum-of-us-by-heather-mcghee/
America for Americans A History of Xenophobia in the United States by Erika Lee	The United States is known as a nation of immigrants. But it is also a nation of xenophobia. Erika Lee shows that an irrational fear, hatred, and hostility toward immigrants has been a defining feature of our nation from the colonial era to today. Lee explains how xenophobia works, why it has endured, and how it threatens America. Now updated with an epilogue reflecting on how the coronavirus pandemic turbocharged xenophobia, America for Americans is an urgent spur to action for any concerned citizen.	https://www.basicbooks.com/titles/erika-lee/americans/9781541672598/
White Fragility By Dr. Robin DiAngelo	Dr. Robin DiAngelo examines its origins in the failure of white society to understand the structural nature of racism, explores the history of the existing racial hierarchy, and makes a powerful case for why it is incumbent upon white people to accept their individual and collective responsibility for white supremacy—and to do the difficult work of challenging it.
