

MEASURE 34-346

Proposed Local Option Levy

Washington County provides public services to every city, unincorporated neighborhood and rural area of Washington County.

In November 2025, voters will have the opportunity to consider a proposed measure which would fund public services in Washington County, including police, prosecution, mental health, domestic violence and other services. If passed, the proposed measure would cost property owners $0.66 per $1,000 of assessed property value, authorizing collection of property taxes for a five-year period beginning in 2026.

NOVEMBER 4, 2025 ELECTION

The measure would fund County services like:

- Investigating and prosecuting theft, car break-ins and graffiti
- Prosecuting child abuse and child pornography cases
- Mental health crisis response teams
- Combating fentanyl and drug trafficking
- Jail operations for those in court-ordered custody
- Victim support and domestic violence prevention

The cost to property owners if the measure passes:

If the measure passes, property owners would pay $0.66 per $1,000 of assessed property value. The owner of a home with an assessed value of $348,600 would pay approximately $19.17 per month or $230.08 per year.

The property tax would continue for five years and raise a total of $337 million.

What if the levy does not pass?

If the measure does not pass, the services would not be provided as proposed and property taxes would not be increased.
