Mobile Response and Stabilization Services

Mobile Response and Stabilization Services (MRSS) provide support to youth and their families in crisis, and stay involved until supports are in place

Youth or Family Crisis

Youth or Family experiencing stress at home or in the community

Youth or Family contacts 988 for support

Discuss

Some concerns may be solved by phone. Youth and Family decide what they think would help most

If needed, a team of two people will come to the crisis for in-person support

Support

The in-person team can provide assessment, screening, and safety planning to determine next steps

Stabilization

The team can stay connected for up to 8 weeks to help provide connection and stability
