PURPOSE: The purpose of this policy is to establish standards for the fair treatment and equal protection of all people in accessing Washington County programs, activities, benefits and services.

AUTHORITY: Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 as amended, and the Civil Right Restoration Act of 1987 (P.L. 100.259), Title VIII of the Fair Housing Act of 1968, Sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act, Section 1557 of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, other related Federal and state Civil Rights laws, Oregon Revised Statute 659A.103 and 659A.403, Oregon Administrative Rules 407-030-0010, Oregon Administrative Rule 943-005-0010 and Washington County Resolution and Order 25-52.

GENERAL POLICY:

Washington County strives to treat all people equally. It is our policy to prevent and remediate discrimination on the basis of an identity protected by federal, state, or local civil rights law. We want all people to receive quality services and benefits and have opportunities for meaningful engagement in Washington County programs and activities.

This policy is intended to affirm our commitment to equal protection and fair treatment for all people who live, work, learn, play and pray in Washington County, as well as to require taking affirmative action to address past and present discrimination. All Washington County programs, departments and contractors are implicated by this policy. It serves as the foundation by which we ensure Civil Rights compliance and build toward greater access and opportunity for everyone in our community.

Federal Civil Rights laws to which Washington County are subject, and the ways in which Washington County shall ensure compliance, include the following:

- A. Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Title VI) states: "No person in the United States shall, on the grounds of race, color or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance."

Washington County strives to assure that no person shall, on the grounds of race, color or national origin, be excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, or otherwise be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity that is a recipient of Federal financial assistance.

Washington County shall comply with all applicable Federal agency regulations prohibiting disparate impact in County programs or activities, and do so whether or not those programs and activities are federally funded, consistent with the Civil Rights Restoration Act of 1988.

In the event Washington County distributes federal aid funds to another governmental entity or other subrecipient, Washington County will include Title VI language in all written agreements and will monitor their compliance.

Washington County's Office of Access and Opportunity is responsible for initiating and monitoring Title VI activities, preparing required reports and updates, coordinating a complaint process, and other responsibilities as required by 23 CFR Part 200, 49 C.F.R. Part 21 (entitled Non-discrimination In Federally-Assisted Programs Of The Department Of Transportation- Effectuation Of Title VI Of The Civil Rights Act Of 1964), and 28 C.F.R. section 50.3 (U.S. Department of Justice Guidelines for Enforcement of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964);

B. Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Title II of ADA) states: "No qualified individual with a disability shall, on the basis of disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs, or activities of a public entity, or be subjected to discrimination by any public entity."

Washington County is committed to preventing discrimination against qualified individuals on the basis of disability in its service, programs, or activities. Washington County will make all reasonable modifications to policies and programs so that people with disabilities have an equal opportunity to enjoy all of its programs, services, and activities.

Washington County will generally, upon request, provide reasonable accommodation and appropriate auxiliary assistance to support accessibility and effective communication for qualified persons with disabilities so they can participate equally in County programs, services, and activities. Washington County may refuse to take any action that would fundamentally alter the nature of its programs or services, or impose an undue financial or administrative burden.

Washington County's Office of Access and Opportunity is responsible for supporting and monitoring ADA compliance activities, preparing required reports and updates, coordinating a complaint process, and other responsibilities as required by 28 CFR Part 35.
