Aloha Man Arrested for Armed Robbery

December 9, 2018

On Saturday, December 8, 2018, at 7:23 p.m., Washington County Sheriff's Office deputies responded to a reported armed robbery at the Aloha Kentucky Fried Chicken (KFC) restaurant at SW TV Highway at SW 187th Avenue. It was reported a man entered the KFC, brandished a handgun and demanded cash. The man was reportedly wearing an "aviator" style hat and goggles during the robbery.

The man received an undisclosed amount of cash and fled on foot. A witness told deputies the man got into the driver's seat of a Hyundai and drove northbound from the KFC. A license plate number for the Hyundai was also relayed to deputies. Sheriff's deputies continued their investigation and searched throughout the night for the Hyundai. Additional compelling evidence led investigators to believe 33 year-old, Patrick Thomas Ouellette of Aloha was responsible for the robbery.

Washington County Violent Crime Unit detectives were contacted to assist with this case. An arrest warrant for robbery and theft charges was issued for Mr. Ouellette.

On Sunday, December 09, 2018, at 9:15 a.m., Patrick Ouellette was believed to be at his residence in the 16600 block of SW Annie Lane in Aloha. Washington County detectives, deputies, Tactical Negotiations Team and the Crisis Negotiations Unit were assisting to bring Mr. Ouellette safely into custody. At about 12:20 p.m., Mr. Ouellette surrendered at his residence and was arrested without further incident.

Sheriff's detectives seized a handgun and aviator style hat and goggles (photo above) matching the ones used in the robbery. Patrick Thomas Ouellette was lodged in the Washington County jail. He is charged with 1st Degree Robbery and 1st Degree Theft, held on $250,000 bail.
