Crash Leaves One Person Dead and One Injured

March 7, 2017 - A crash last night on Scholls-Sherwood Road left one woman dead and another man injured. It appears the deceased driver's vehicle crossed over into incoming traffic and was struck by a mini-van.

On March 6, 2017, at about 10:24 p.m., Sheriff's deputies responded to a crash on SW Roy Rogers Road north of SW Scholls-Sherwood Road. When they arrived they found Marlene Macewan, 62, of Sherwood, deceased at the scene and Calvin Taylor, 51, of Tigard, with non-life-threatening injuries.

The Washington County Crash Analysis Reconstruction Team (CART) was called to investigate the crash. The preliminary investigation indicates that Mrs. Macewan was driving her 1995 Porsche 911 south on SW Roy Rogers Road into the sweeping curve near the Tualatin River National Wildlife Refuge. She lost control of the vehicle and started to slide sideways around the corner into oncoming traffic. Mr. Taylor was north bound on Scholls-Sherwood and struck the Porsche in his lane.

Mr. Tyler was extricated from his 2013 Toyota Sienna by firefighters from Tualatin Valley Fire and Rescue (TVF&R). He was transported to an area hospital with non-life-threatening injuries.
