PRESS RELEASE

Case#50-162250721

Man Indicted for Invasion of Personal Privacy and Child Pornography

September 16, 2016—Washington County Sheriff's Child Abuse Detectives are searching for additional victims following the arrest of an Aloha man after being found in possession of stolen female under garments and child pornography.

Deputies began investigating Leighton Tilford Olson, 37, after being called to a suspicious circumstance in the community of Aloha. It was discovered that Mr. Olson was in possession of thousands of stolen female under garments. Enforcement deputies obtained a search warrant for Mr. Olson's residence and contacted Child Abuse detectives.

During the investigation, detectives discovered evidence that Mr. Olson had been recording his co-workers in the employee restroom at his place of employment, Little Caesar's Pizza in Aloha. Detectives also discovered recordings of unsuspecting victims in his bathroom at his apartment.

On September 13, 2016 a Washington County Grand Jury indicted Leighton Olson on 5 counts of Invasion of Personal Privacy, 4 counts of First Degree Encouraging Child Sexual Abuse, 4 counts of Using Child In Display of Sexually Explicit Conduct, 2 counts of Second Degree Theft, and 1 count of Burglary in the First Degree.

Mr. Olson was arrested at a court hearing Friday September 16, at 3:00 p.m. His bail is set at $1,165,000.

The investigation is ongoing and additional charges are likely. No additional information is available at this time.

Detectives believe that there may be more victims and are asking for the public's assistance. Anyone with information is asked to contact Detective Tim Miller at (503) 846-2700.
