PRESS RELEASE

Missing and Endangered Aloha Teen

August 30, 2015—The Washington County Sheriff's Office is asking the public's help to locate a 14-year-old teen that is missing and poses a danger to himself.

August 30, 2015 - At 3:27 p.m., The Sheriff's Office responded to the community of Aloha on a report of a missing teenager. Giovanni Garcia-Delgado, age 14 has been missing since Sunday afternoon. The family reported that Giovanni suffers from anxiety and has made recent statements of self-harm.

His parents reported that he may have gone to the Hillsboro 24-hour fitness on Tualatin Valley Highway and he spends time with his aunt on SE Century Blvd in Hillsboro, but he has not been seen there today. Deputies checked the local parks and places Giovanni is known to spend time, but he was not located. The Sheriff's Office is now seeking the public's help in an effort to locate Giovanni.

Giovanni left on foot in an unknown direction. He was last seen wearing a black t-shirt, blue jeans and black rimmed glasses. Giovanni is 5'2", 110lbs, has brown eyes and black hair.

The Sheriff's Office is asking anyone who has information on the whereabouts of Giovanni Garcia-Delgado to call 911.
