Detectives Search for More Victims after Teacher Arrest

September 4, 2015--Washington County Child Abuse Detectives are searching for additional victims following the arrest of a Tualatin High School teacher.

Detectives believe that Jonathan Maggiano, 32, of SE Portland (Booking Photo Included), has engaged in inappropriate sexual conduct with at least one underage female who was a student at the school. Detectives began their investigation of Mr. Maggiano after a family member reported the sexual conduct.

Washington County Sheriff's Detectives received information that Mr. Maggiano had recently engaged in inappropriate sexual conduct with an underage female in SE Portland. The Child Abuse Detectives were able to gain enough information and evidence from the reported activity to arrest Mr. Maggiano this morning at his Portland residence. Portland Police Bureau assisted the Washington County Detective take Mr. Maggiano into custody and transported him to the Multnomah County Detention Center.

The Washington County Child Abuse Detectives believe there may be the possibility of additional victims of unreported crimes committed by Mr. Maggiano.

Mr. Maggiano was lodged in the Multnomah County Detention Center. He was charged with Second Degree Sex Abuse, Sexual Misconduct, Contributing to the Sexual Delinquency of a Minor and Luring a Minor. He was held prior to posting $15,000 bail.

Detectives are seeking the public's help regarding this case. If you have any information, please call the Washington County Sheriff's Office Detective Division at (503) 846-2500.
