Shop With A Cop at Cornelius Fred Meyer

December 5, 2014 – Thanks to Cornelius Fred Meyer, 23 local children in need participated in the annual “Shop with a Cop”, holiday event. From 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. the Cornelius Fred Meyer opened their doors to these children. For two hours, deputies helped the kids spend $40.00 on gifts for their family members. The children were then given $60 worth of items from their own wish list. The children who participated were nominated with the assistance of local schools.

Friday morning, 23 local children in need participated in the annual “Shop with a Cop”, holiday event. From 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. the Cornelius Fred Meyer opened their doors to these children. For two hours, deputies helped the kids spend $40.00 on gifts for their family members. The children were then given $60 worth of items from their own wish list. The children who participated were nominated with the assistance of local schools.

Chief Gene Moss would like to thank Fred Meyer for their generosity. With their support, these children and their families will have much appreciated gifts under their tree. Deputies look forward to this annual opportunity where the participants get a fun experience and positive contact with Deputies.
