PRESS RELEASE

Deputies Searching for Missing Endangered Beaverton Woman

Update:

Mrs. Darlow was found safe at around 11:20 p.m. A citizen recognized her picture from the morning news and called dispatch. She has been reunited with her family. The Sheriff's Office appreciates help from the media and public in locating Mrs. Darlow.

February 8, 2017—Sheriff's Deputies are asking for the public's help in locating a woman with dementia who walked away from her Beaverton home.

Today at 1:20 a.m., Washington County Sheriff's Deputies were called to an apartment in the 14300 block of SW Walker Road in Beaverton for the report of a missing woman. Shirley Darlow, 63-years-old, was reported missing by her family. The last time Mrs. Darlow was seen was at about 11:00 p.m. on February 7th.

Mrs. Darlow is reported to have dementia and other mental health conditions, which may cause confusion and make it difficult for her to find her way home.

Shirley Darlow is described as being 5'02" tall, thin build, with long black hair. Mrs. Darlow was last seen wearing a blue denim jacket, blue jeans, and dark shoes.

Deputies have searched area neighborhoods and businesses, but have been unable to locate Mrs. Darlow. Washington County Sheriff's Search and Rescue (SAR) resources are also being utilized in the search effort.

The Washington County Sheriff's Office is asking for the public's help in this case. If anyone has any information regarding the whereabouts of Shirley Darlow, please call 503-629-0111.
