PRESS RELEASE

Washington County Sheriff's Office is Conducting a Free Hiring Workshop

October 24, 2016 -- Are you interested in a career in law enforcement?

The Washington County Sheriff's Office is holding a hiring workshop for Law Enforcement positions on Wednesday, October 26, 2016 from 6:00pm – 8:00pm in Hillsboro.

The Sheriff's office seeks individuals who are great communicators, are creative problem solvers, maintain positive attitudes and thrive working in a team environment. The Sheriff's Office offers superior training, competitive pay and benefits packages, tuition reimbursement, special team assignments and promotional opportunities.

The Sheriff's Office maintains high standards throughout the selection process. This is a unique opportunity to learn and speak with deputies about:

- The testing process through the National Testing Network
- The Physical Abilities Test (PAT)
- Interviews and the Background Investigation process
- Job Shadows and Patrol Ride-Along
- Our Enforcement, Jail and Services Divisions
- Information on Civilian Positions will be available.
- Special Teams and more.

Registration is not required for this event, but is encouraged so that we have enough staff available to answer your questions. For more information, visit our website at WCSheriff-OR.com or contact Sergeant Karlyn Degman by phone (503-846-2475) or by email (Karlyn_Degman@co.washington.or.us).
